

Goulet Telecom International attends the COMESA Workshop in Kampala

24 November 2006 (Montreal) – Two representatives of Goulet Telecom International participated in the Workshop ‘ICT Role in Promoting Trade and Investment in the Northern Corridor: Interconnection, Pricing and Consumer Related Issues’ organized by the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA) in Kampala, Uganda from 13 to 15 November 2006. The Workshop was attended by more than fifty telecommunications professionals working for operators, regulators and policy-makers in the region. Thirteen countries were represented: Burundi, Democratic Republic of Congo, Egypt, Ethiopia, Kenya, Madagascar, Malawi, Seychelles, Sudan, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

The session was opened by Prof. Ephraim Kamuntu, the Ugandan State Minister for Industry and Technology. The workshop was composed of dynamic presentations on both theoretical and practical concepts, live discussions and presentations by the participants on their country’s experience. Ms. Wendy Swan, Chief Operating Officer of Goulet Telecom International, made four presentations on the following topics: Interconnection in the Era of IP and Convergence, Interconnection Agreements Negotiation and Management, Interconnection Pricing, Interconnection Obligations and Dispute Resolution. Ms. Hélène Duran, Director Business Development & Marketing of Goulet Telecom International was also attending and took this opportunity to meet and discuss collaboration with clients of Eastern and Southern Africa.

The Workshop was a success: valuable information was exchanged between participants and practical knowledge was acquired thanks to the presentations and live discussions. In addition, Workshop recommendations were made on how to successfully manage interconnection while complying with the requirements of the regulatory framework and satisfying the consumers.
