

Neotelis attends ITU Telecom Africa 2008 in Cairo

16 June 2008 (Montreal) – The CEO of Neotelis, Mr. Michel Bruyère, and its Director of Business Development & Marketing, Ms. H  l  ne Duran, were in Cairo on 12–15 May to attend ITU Telecom Africa 2008.

This networking event held at the Cairo International Convention and Exhibition Centre gathered key actors of the telecom and Information & Communications Technology (ICT) sectors from all around the world. During these four days, Mr. Bruy  re and Ms. Duran had the privilege to meet with senior executives working for operators, regulators, policy-makers and governments from over 15 countries worldwide including Cameroon, Egypt, Ivory Coast, Senegal and Tanzania. These important meetings will allow Neotelis to further develop its business in Africa and facilitate future working relationships with African clients.

The objective of this trip was also to announce that the company had recently changed its name to Neotelis and to promote the company's new expertise in ICT for Development.

For further information, please contact Ms. H  l  ne Duran at hduran@neotelis.com.

About Neotelis

Neotelis (formerly Goulet Telecom International) assists telecommunications organizations worldwide to face the specific challenges of the global competitive environment by providing a wide array of business solutions, consulting expertise and training services. Neotelis has collaborated with telecom operators, regulators, governments and policy-makers from over 100 countries around the world.