

Neotelis CEO speaks at the ITU Human Capacity Development Forum for Europe and the CIS

21 April 2009 (Montreal) – Neotelis participated in the ITU Human Capacity Development Forum for Europe and the CIS that took place in Budva, Montenegro from 30 March to 2 April 2009.

The CEO of Neotelis Mr. Michel Bruyère delivered a presentation titled 'ICT Training – Global Experience of a Canadian Provider'. Ms. Ekaterina Cheina, Sales Manager, was also present at the Neotelis exhibit to provide participants with information on the company's human capacity building services. The Forum gathered decision-makers and managers involved in human capacity building, training, and learning and development activities from national administrations and service providers, as well as executive training providers and telecom academies.

The objective of the event was to identify key challenges and needs of the sector, and to share best practices in human capacity development. Throughout the event, Mr. Bruyère and Ms. Cheina had the opportunity to discuss potential collaboration with leading professionals representing organizations from the region. Participants from the following countries were present at this ITU HCD Forum: Armenia, Belarus, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Greece, Italy, Kyrgyz Republic, Latvia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland, Tajikistan, Ukraine and the United Kingdom.
